

Blackboard is one of the useful education material for children and every Kajoli Centre use it. Usually there are four blackboards on the wall of each center which are made of 8 feet by 4 feet plywood boards.

All children of the centre write or draw on it. Thus they can learn how to write and also get pleasure. As there are four boards, children can use it all together. In this way the education become more enjoyable to them.